

Building relationships

Children: Reception 2021-22

---

Notes

We have been spending a lot of time over the last few days building relationships between the children and with the practitioners. Here are a few photos of some of the friendly learning we have been engaged in.