

What should I already know?

- I know that a single fabric shape can be used to make a 3D textiles product
- I know that a 3-D textiles product can be assembled from two identical fabric shapes
- I can make simple judgements about my products and ideas against design criteria
- I can suggest how my products could be improved

Progression through unit

Technical Knowledge

I know that a 3D textiles product can be made from a combination of materials and shapes

What will I know at the end of the unit?

- To have investigated and analysed items using textiles
- To know about materials and how they are made
- To know about how materials are joined and decorated
- To have designed an item using textiles and pattern pieces
- To have used pattern pieces to mark, measure and cut fabric
- To have joined fabric pieces by hand sewing
- To have sewn hems on items made using textiles
- To be able to add design details to fabric

Drawstring Bag: Evaluation

Read the statements below. Mark on the scale how strongly you agree with them (1=strongly disagree, 10=strongly agree).

Name: _____

(My design was clear, detailed and easy to follow when decorating the bag. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10)

(My pattern pieces were neat, detailed and accurate. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10)

(I was able to accurately transfer seam lines and other markings from my pattern pieces to fabric. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10)

(I can sew neat, strong seams and hems. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10)

(My finished bag looks like my design. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10)

Describe one thing you were really pleased with, and one thing you could improve:

I can evaluate my ideas and products against my original design specification

Coco Chanel

I can discuss and evaluate the work of a known fashion designer.

Science – Properties of Materials

Different textiles have different properties.

What are the properties of the textiles used in these items of clothing?

It might help you to think about when and why they are worn!
