

Roald Dahl Story Day is a joyful annual celebration of one of the world's most beloved storytellers. Held on September 13—Dahl's birthday—it's a day to share stories, dress up, and let imaginations run wild. Schools, libraries, families, and fans around the world take part in playful, creative activities inspired by his unforgettable characters and magical worlds.

Why Roald Dahl Story Day Matters

Stories have the power to shape how children see the world—and few authors have sparked as much imagination as Roald Dahl. His books are full of wit, bravery, and justice, often told from a child's point of view. Story Day encourages young readers to find joy in books and to discover their own voices. It's also a reminder that stories can bring people together and leave lasting impact beyond the page.

Roald Dahl day at SMSP

SMSP Will be celebrating Roald Dahl day on Monday 15th September as part of our commitment to reading for pleasure. Children are invited to dress up as their favourite Roald Dahl characters. We will be awarding prizes for the most innovative costumes as well as letting our imaginations run wild in classroom activities. Please do not feel that you need to spend money on shop costumes for this. Most of our previous winners have created things from bits and bobs found at home!
